
Seminar on applying Value Management & building partnership in workplaces, families and marriage on 20 April 2017

Seminar on applying Value Management & building partnership in workplaces, families and marriage on 20 April 2017

The seminar was conducted by Ir. KC Leung on 20 April 2017. The seminar was jointly organized by the Hong Kong Institute of Surveyors, Hong Kong Institute of Construction Managers and HKIVM. There were more than 150 participants.

The talk covered the importance of establishing teamwork and partnership in facilitating Value Management. Ir. Leung also introduced Marriage and Family Therapy and its basic systemic concepts. He also conducted a case study with video segments for illustration, and provided practical solutions and recommendations for building healthy human relationships in workplaces, marriage and family.

